supper club MOOCOW ARTY FARTY

MOOCOW presented their art inspired evening ARTY FARTY - no hockney no picasso not even a warhol masterpiece just off the wall dishes, stimulating beverages and creations to be admired! MOOs were greeted with a glass of bubbles as they made their way into the 'art studio' to try their hand at life drawing! throughout the evening delicious dishes were inspired by and presented to represent famous art works - no pressure from mikee - ex-head of art at a leading independent school!

- ✘ life drawing session to kick the evening off courtesy of life model isabelle l'amour
- ✘ winning sketch by kuki waterstone
- ✘ scallops served on a canvas
- ✘ iceball arty farty cocktail
- ✘ thanks to quay arts for the loan of the art easels
- ✘ thanks to coves enterprise college for the art paper

MARK ROTHKO

although rothko himself refused to adhere to any art movement, he is generally identified as an abstract expressionist - he is one of the most famous postwar american* artists (*rothko was born in russia) - his most famous works are based on blocks of colour

MOOs were served crab and lobster balls on a bed of vibrant red tomato relish topped with a coloured flatbread:

BEN NICHOLSON

was a british painter of abstract compositions (inspired by post impressionism and cubism), landscape and still-life

june 1937

his cubism paintings were interpreted into presenting squares of food: - slow roasted pork belly with square potatoes and cubes of vibrant vegetables

JACKSON POLLOCK

an american painter and a major figure in the abstract expressionist movement - he was well known for his unique style of drip painting

MOOs were presented scallops with a pea puree and cumin foam served on a canvas pollock style

number 18 1950

ANDY WARHOL

an american artist, director and producer who was a leading figure in the visual art movement known as pop art - one of his best known works is the silkscreen painting campbell's soup cans 1962:

MOOs were not presented with tomato soup but a trio of meat sticks with a trio of sauces dished up in ramekins made to look like campbell soup cans!

SALVADOR DALI

a prominent spanish surrealist artist - his expansive artistic repertoire included film, sculpture, and photography, in collaboration with a range of artists in a variety of media

he is best known for the striking and bizarre images in his surrealist work:

dream caused by the flight of a bee around a pomegranate a second before awakening 1944

the surrealism was represented with a whole mackerel fillet skewered on a bed of bean and pomegranate salad:

BANKSY

an anonymous england-based graffiti artist, political activist and film director of unverified identity - banksy's works of political and social commentary have been featured on streets, walls, and bridges of cities throughout the world:

girl and balloon 2002

girl and balloon - arguably banksy's most famous work appeared on a wall of a stairway in london in 2002

this image was replicated on a white chocolate cheesecake with a fresh strawberry as the balloon
