supper club MOOCOW THE SEQUEL

MOOCOW opened its doors last night a full year on from their first ever supperclub with their 18th supperclub THE SEQUEL. and what an extravaganza it was - MOOs (many of whom were present at the premiere a year ago) were treated to a glass of red bubbles on arrival from the light up bar having posed for their arrival photo. The evening unfolded with five rounds of tasty MOOCOW morsels with a few surprises hidden on the way

HIGHLIGHTS

- ❖ pond life - cocktails served in a bag with fish and flowers
- ❖ lucky fortune cookies
- ❖ cuisses de grenouilles - or frogs' legs to us english folk - served deep fried on a lily pad
- ❖ DIY sparkling desserts
- ❖ live acoustic music from max

ONE YEAR ON...

eighteen months ago the MOOCOW boys made a decision to take back control of their lives resulting in club MOOCOW and the introduction of their supperclubs one year ago

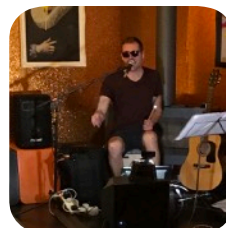

read the original full press release of a year ago here

over the past year the MOOCOW boys have delivered 17 supperclubs - all the gossip from these evenings can be found in the MORNING AFTER MOOs letters all stored on the library page of our website

now the boys look forward to delighting you MOOs with another successful year of supperclubs starting with THE SEQUEL

THE MUSIC

max - a local singer / songwriter who also performs covers from 1950s right up to modern day - playing the guitar, cajon and aerodrums

LUCKY COOKIE

inside the homemade fortune cookies were MOOCOW words of wisdom, however there were five even luckier MOOs who found a lottery scratch card inside - were any worth a fortune though? there was one especially lucky MOO (jane morgan) who won a bottle of christian audiger designer wine
