

Budworth Sailing Club

Code of practice for Parents and Guardians

Budworth Sailing Club is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the wellbeing of all its members. The Club believes that it is important that members, officers, instructors and parents/guardians show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others. Everyone is encouraged to be open at all times and share any concerns or complainets that they may have about any aspect of the Cub with either the Commodore or the Club Secretary.

Parents and Guardians of Junior members are expected to comply with the following guidelines for Junior training and Sailing

Encourage your child to learn the Sailing Rules and follow them when participating..

Support your child's involvement and help them to enjoy their Sailing. Children must not be forced to participate.

Encourage and guide children to accept responsibility for their own performance and behaviour. Never punish or belittle a child for losing or making mistakes.

Set a good example by recognising fair play and applauding good performances of all. Good performance is as important as results.

Use correct and proper language at all times.

Discourage unfair play and arguing with officials and instructors. Publicly accept their judgements and be supportive of them. Help them whenever you can, and remember, they are giving up their time to help and support your child in developing an interest and expertise in Sailing.

Ensure that instructions are followed and agreed timings are kept – inform the instructors if there may be problems.

Ensure that membership and other fees are paid promptly

If you are taking photographs of your children, please be aware of the club policy on photography, in relation to child protection issues, and ensure that if these images include those of other children, they are not publicised or used inappropriately.

Ensure that participants adhere to Club Rules and safety requirements and must not indulge in inappropriate activities whether on the Club Premises or representing the Club elsewhere.
